MATTER...

Garrett: #5 is going to be your biggest obstacle, from 8-9 hours a day to 15, less money, the greatest crucible of your life. You will question and doubt yourself; you will fall into a pit of despair & misery; it will affect every area of your life.

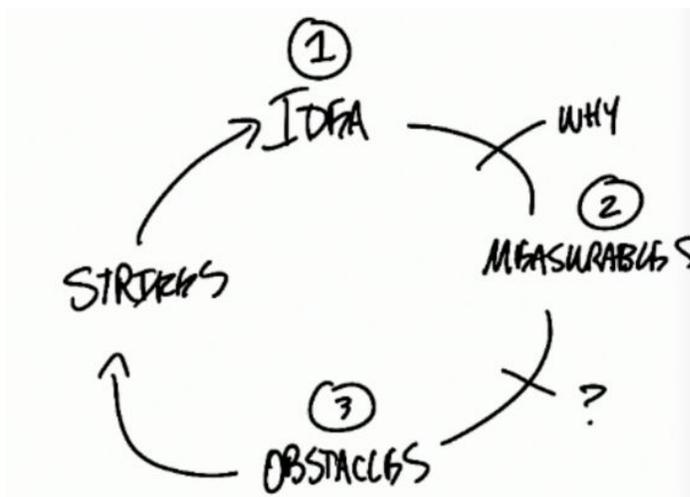

'Good' will go to bad before it gets to great. Life will take a back seat.

2. 50% increase = $500k
3. My wife can choose to work or not.
4. I take directions from myself. "I am the boss."

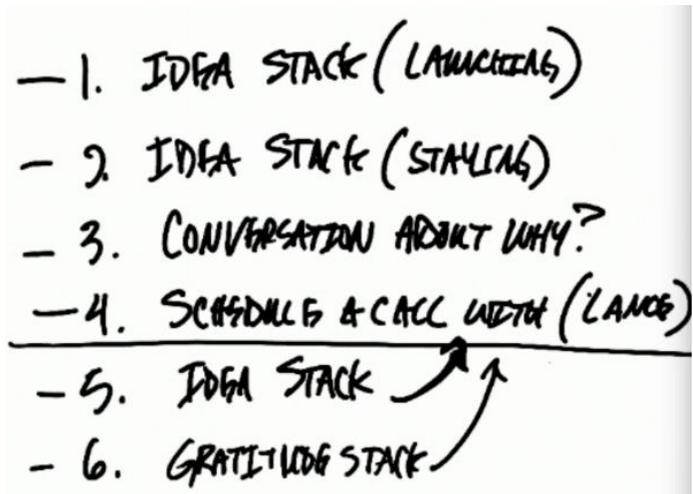

“The content today receives its purpose from the bridge of context tomorrow.”

- If you take a section out and veil it from the ability to see the context of tomorrow, then you will lose power to do anything about the idea and forget why you’re doing it.
- If it’s a hard thing to do, you will default, push it to the side, and not do it.

“None of your ideas matter until they’re measurable.”

--Garrett J White

--Garrett J White

→ CORE 4

- 85% of the people who enter the gates of Warrior do so with the domain of BUSINESS as their target.
- The other domains of BODY, BEING, & BALANCE are the catalysts to be able to produce in BUSINESS. They are either accelerating or decelerating you towards your targets and goals.
- These are all interchangeable.
- As we line up each of these areas, we create rocket fuel to get us where we want to go.

→ The Divine Reset - The STACK

- Every night, your darkness gets 'smart.'
- The piece of you resisting taking action will start to create opposition to you being able to take action.
- You wake up to your darkness, knowing how to be bigger than you, regardless of the actions you took the day before.
- Enter - self-doubt, the blame-anger-victim game.
- The STACK equalizes the game.

→ The DOOR

- The DOOR is the third app inside the Warrior's Way system.
- Once you have all the power and perspective locked down, you must put that into a productive tool with simple actions.
- The DOOR app deals with four specific actions daily - the HIT LIST.

→ The CODE -FACT MAP

- Foundational Fact Map
- Impossible Game - establishes your 'True North.'

- Future Fact Map - divides the game into four quarterly segments.

→ 100 DAYS

“One of the biggest reasons people don’t take action is because of the terror of not knowing who they are. They don’t believe in themselves; they don’t have courage and confidence, which means that the actions they’re taking every day are always with hesitance.”
